

FOUR FAMILIES ARE RESCUED AT BROOKLYN BLAZE

Children Carried Along Ledge
From Burning Home to Adjoining Building.

Four families, including six children, were rescued by Policemen Edward Ryan, Special Policemen Frank Russo and firemen attached to Hook and Ladder No. 109 at 4 A. M. today during a fire that had destroyed the stairs at Nos. 618 and 320 Fourth Avenue, South Brooklyn.

One hallway is used for both the three-story buildings, which have stores on the ground floor. The blaze started in the rear of the hall, and the stairs were almost gone when Russo and Ryan arrived.

He sent an alarm and picked up Policemen Ryan of the Fifth Avenue Station on his way back to the house. Seeing they could not reach the four families living above the stores in the two buildings, they went up through No. 618 and to a ledge on the first floor.

By this time the members of the four families were in their front windows shouting for help. When Truck No. 109 arrived, Lieut. Francis X. Ryan had three ladders run up. In the second floor windows of No. 618 were Edward H. Carral, his wife, Amelia, and their two children, Henrietta, sixteen months, and Viola, twenty-eight months.

Russo had walked along the ledge to them, but could do nothing until a ladder was raised. Firemen quickly entered the apartment and passed Henrietta to Russo, who walked along the ledge with her to Policemen Ryan, who handed her into the windows of No. 618. Russo went back and repeated his perilous trip along the ledge with Viola. Carral and his wife walked the ledge with Russo and the policeman as escorts, holding to them to keep them from falling to the street.

Mrs. Culey, a widow, and her three boarders were taken down a ladder from the upper floor of No. 618 by firemen.

On the second floor of No. 620 John Johnson, his wife and two children, Edna, ten, and Winifred, twelve, were carried down the ladder by firemen, and from the top floor Michael Baratta, his wife and their two children, Rachael, seven, and Antonette, two, were rescued in the same way. The blaze went to the roof, doing $10,000 damage.

MAN KILLED IN ROW WITH FELLOW WORKER

Alleged Assassin Taken to Hospital With Stashed Gun.

A fight between two "buff-stallions" in Brooklyn today ended in the death of one and the serious injury of the other. Frank Nemo, thirty, No. 125 Third Place and Leonard Ansonia, twenty-five, No. 40 Huntington Street, got into an argument in the store at No. 200 Court Street, the headquarters of the Steamship Horse & Cattle Fitters' Association, Local No. 558. Ansonia, it is said, drew a knife and slashed the eye of Nemo. The fight was carried to the street, where Nemo is said to have shot his opponent.

Ansonia was pronounced dead by Dr. Stolla, of the Long Island College Hospital. Nemo was taken there a prisoner. Both men worked as laborers fitting up posts and stalls on cattle ships.

ESCAPER JAIL IN 1916, RECAPTURED TO-DAY

Elevator Boy Helps to Get Herbert Held in Toilet.

Herbert Bell, a Negro, who escaped from Auburn Prison in Sept., 1916, had successfully evaded the police who were looking for him until this morning, when he was arrested not a block from the West 125th Street Station at his home, No. 175 West 125th Street.

Bell's arrest followed a description given to the police by an elevator boy at No. 145 West 142d Street, who reported that such a man had impersonated Robert A. Jones, also a Negro, and had robbed the latter's apartment of the worth of valuables after gaining entrance when he said he had lost his key through a window facing a fire escape. His previous convictions were for larceny.

He was held without bail for examination today, when Auburn officials are expected to take him back to prison.

SHOT FIVE TIMES, WALKS TO STATION

Man Says He Was Invited to Ride, Then Riddled With Bullets and Thrown Out.

With two bullets in his neck, two in his left arm and one in his right arm, Tony Bruno, twenty-four, No. 410 East 123d Street, walked to West 177th Street Station early today and said friends with whom he had been riding in a touring car had shot him and thrown him out at Riverside Drive and 182d Street.

Bruno was taken to Columbus Hospital and placed on the operating table. His condition was not serious, it was said.

He said an argument started soon after he had been invited to take a ride, but would not say what it was about.

Home Brew Evidence Blows Up. Presque Prosecutors' Office. A bottle of home brew exploded with a resounding report yesterday in the office of District Attorney Ruston, in Brooklyn, spreading over walls and ceiling. The bottle was one of 189 seized by the police at No. 56 Raymond Street, Brooklyn. Detective Gerry was examining it when suddenly the stopper flew off the ceiling and the contents followed.

Save the bird in hand— The others may be hard to catch

With enough money, enough time and enough luck, a man may get back the health he has lost—or part of it.

It takes patience, too.

And then there may be no success, or only a little.

It's better to save what you have than hunt for what you've lost—as the most successful health-restorers will tell you.

Much of the loss of health is due to faulty, careless diet. Wrong meals at all times and right meals at wrong times load the long-suffering digestive organs with elements of destruction, or starve the tissues and glands of needed elements.

Grape-Nuts is a delicious cereal food which has the qualities of scientific nutrition. It supplies the full richness of those splendid food grains, wheat and malted barley, together with the vital mineral elements, so often lacking from foods. Served with cream or good milk, Grape-Nuts gives full nourishment without over-loading the stomach.

A splendid thought for breakfast or lunch, for those who would keep health—
